

LaShanya Aikerson

Speaker, Trainer, Coach, and Facilitator

As the CEO of Aikerson Consulting Group, Inc., LaShanya Aikerson works with corporate and government organizations to turn managers into leaders. She believes you grow your leaders to grow your bottom line. Successful organizations have one thing in common – they empower all levels of their organization with leadership skills. The Aikerson Consulting Group team empowers organizations with leadership principles, using engaging and interactive techniques based on advanced adult learning techniques. Learning becomes fun and sustainable. Organizations realize immediate results.

LaShanya began her career over 30 years ago, in Chicago, as an electrical engineer for a major telecommunications company. Because she was good technically, she got promoted to become a supervisor. Unfortunately, her engineering education did not empower her with the tools to be effective with people. As a result, not long after her promotion she found herself fired. This experience inspired her to learn what separates the best from the rest when it comes to being effective with teams and organizations. She is a certified speaker, trainer, coach, and consultant.

Today her company offers training, coaching, meeting facilitation and more in the following areas: leadership, change management, emotional intelligence, effective communications, team building, sustained inspiration, and more.

Education and Background:

- Harvard University: Organizational Change and Innovation certificate
- Northwestern University (Kellogg): MBA degree. Majors: Organizational Behavior, Strategy, and Marketing.
- Bradley University: Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering
- Certifications and Qualifications: DISC, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP), Change Management (Prosci), Six Sigma (green belt), and more
- Certified Speaker, Trainer, Coach, and Consultant
